Short Description	The project OCR-INCENDI has as his basic object the prevention of fires and the application of completed methods of protection of wooded lands in the sensitive regions of Mediterranean. It concerns therefore the sensitization of population for the confrontation of fires and in general of natural destructions that can emanate from the fires. Thus, in the frame of the project suitable bases of geographic data and maps will be created that will inform and impress the running situation. The dissemination of information and the creation of an operational plan of action constitute also basic key challenges of the Project.
